"Parenting is an Art"

- Expose the child to money management
 - The day the child starts spending money
 - They must be made known that things do not come easily in life and the best way to do that is by example.
 - 'Chocolate bank' this is like a piggy bank. Every time when the child gets a chocolate, it has to be deposited in this bank.
 - Child can eat chocolates twice a week from the bank. Child observes chocolates piling up when deposited and reducing in number when withdrawn.
 - This will help in teaching child the concept of fund inflow and outflow in the future
